It is rumored that Sophie Menter will make a tour in this country this season under the management of Mr. F. A. Schwab.

Patti has now arranged to sail for New York October 25th. Nessel will accompany her, and the rest of the company, which includes Marijane Fabbri, M.M. (Gast), Lily, Novara, and Mareschini, with Signor Arilli as conductor, will leave on the same day. The season will open in New York on November 1st, and in all other cities will be given, the first part of each programme being devoted to an act from a favorite opera.

Anton Rubinstein, after indefatigable work for two years, has at last put the finishing touches to his great biblical opera "Christus." It is designated by him "as the work of his life," and he says that during its composition he was more than ever inspired.

Samuel Kozzanishi, the eight-year-old pianist of the German Court, has a repertoire of 1,000 pieces. In sixty-four days he gave fifty-five concerts, and during the last three and a half years has played 507 times in public. Pretty good, this, for a child.

Bobby? Pop, what is a musician? Fond Parent: A musician, my son, is where a lot of people who know each other meet to hear a fine concert, and during the last three and a half years has played 507 times in public. Pretty good, this, for a child.

The (Chevalier de Kotski) has completed the transcontinental tour of America, and has arrived at San Francisco on his way to Japan. The latest report from the veteran musician is that he is in excellent health and spirits, and is enjoying his tour.

Miss Lulu Kunkel, the solo violinist, is open for engagements and may be addressed at 317 S. 22nd Street. Miss Kunkel has been highly praised for her playing at some of the leading concerts.

Rev. Rob. Sauter, the distinguished teacher of violin, added the World's Fair to the many great achievements he has witnessed. Mr. Sauter's masterly teaching is widely appreciated.

Lowell Putnam, teacher of violin and mandolin, receives pupils at his residence, 1134 Leonard Avenue. Mr. Putnam is a very thorough and successful teacher and advances his pupils as rapidly as possible.

G. Neubert, the pianist and teacher, has done much toward the advancement of music in Belleville, where he is director of the Philharmonic Concerts. His pupils in piano evidence the thorough and careful instruction they receive.

Miss Anna Vieths, who has been studying the past year with the celebrated Leschetitzky, in Vienna, has returned home. Miss Vieths is well qualified to impart the peculiar methods of Paderewski's teacher. She will assist Miss Strong, and many will, no doubt, be glad to avail themselves of the special features offered by this arrangement.

Miss B. Mahan, of the Beethoven Conservatory, has returned after a delightful vacation of four months, most of which was spent at the World's Fair, where she played in concert. Miss Mahan has resumed her classes.

Miss Nellie Strong has returned after a delightful summer at Kye Beach, New Hampshire, and resumed teaching. Miss Strong's classes are so enlarged that she has formed an Intermediate as well as a Primary Department, being assisted by some of her best advanced pupils. Miss Strong's essay was pronounced one of the best read at the Musical Convention.

him to fame were enormously successful and added much to his popularity and renown. In 1920, however, Mr. Sousa accepted a princely offer to assume the direction of his present orchestra, and he was obliged to resign his position as band leader from the United States service. In the wake of up and down land and sea, his orchestra of four thousand men followed, with the result that he has a military band capable of all the artistic nuances of a string orchestra. As a composer, Mr. Sousa is equally prolific and popular. He is known as the "March King," as widely as Strauss is known as the "Waltz King," and he is one of the very few American composers whose works are generally played in Europe. His most popular marches, such as the "Washington Post" and "High School Cadets," are played by every band and whistled on every corner in the United States. Over half a million copies of each of these marches have already been sold. His latest published march, "The Baumgardner," "Queen of the Air" and "Destiny" are his famous predecessors. Sousa has also written five operas, to which "The Baumgardner," "Queen of the Air" and "Destiny" have been successfully produced, and he has just signed a contract to write new operas for the DeWolf Hopper, the theatre company, which is being directed by Charles Klein, the well known playwright. His published works number many hundred, and include marches, Sousa's waltzes, overtures, and La Strada, etc. In appearance John Philip Sousa is of medium height, possessing a well built frame, with features of southern lineage, eyes bespeaking a warmth of temperament, great enthusiasm, energy and intelligence. He possesses a magnetic personal charm which attracts others, and at the same time enables him to lead a band as much by force of character as by force of authority.

P. Rob. Klute begs to inform his numerous friends and patrons that he has succeeded in engaging the valuable services of Mr. Victor Lichteustein, the well known concert soloist, for the purpose of giving violin instruction at his Music Rooms, 3094 Eastern Avenue, and will be glad to receive communications from a limited number of pupils.

Concert players looking for a beautiful and effective piano piece should have the "Alpine Storm," by Charles Kunkel, price $1.00, or "Southern Jollifications," a typical plantation scene, by the same author, price 60 cents.

Young Siegfried Wagner, the only son of the poet-composer and Fran Cosima, erstwhile the wife of Hans von Bülow, has definitely renounced his lineage and profession of an architect, and has given himself bodily to music. Genius is very seldom inherited, and it is highly improbable that Siegfried will become the author of any sublime music dramas. However, report speaks highly of his abilities. It is his intention to relieve his mother of some of the cares and responsibilities attending to the Bayreuth festival performances so report says. His mother musically does not wish to be relieved, for she is notoriously pigheaded. She has employed the reputation and traditions of her husband's genius since his death with a clear purpose of getting all the profit possible out of them, and she has personally managed the Bayreuth festivals with a jealous and watchful business eye. Siegfried cannot come over such a mother.

FAVORITE FASHION JOURNALS

Are Published Monthly in Paris in French and in English by

A. McDOWELL & CO.

THESE JOURNALS Have long been the Leaders of Fashion in Paris, and are now acknowledged to be the standard in this country.
THEY HAVE FOUR POINTS OF SUPERIORITY.
First—They produce original styles. Usually one month in advance of other journals.

Second—The styles are practical and reliable,
such as the better class in Paris really wear.
Third—The practical lessons on how to cut and make garments are invaluable. These lessons simplifying dressmaking are valued at $12.00 per year.

Fourth—The colored plates are noted for giving the correct colors, of the materials used, as well as their general excellence.
These Journals are designed by different artists, consequently each one is peculiar to itself, giving
its own styles.
